Article: OUR SOUL HAS A NAME?

OUR ANGELS WANT EACH OF US TO KNOW WE DO!

OUR SOUL HAS A NAME?

An energy match - good good good vibrations!

When I am excited to share a personal experience that I believe will assist so many of you who know your Angels' NAME (s).

During a recent meditation with The Angels of The Light, the following information came through in such a way that instantly grabbed my attention. "YOUR SOUL HAS A NAME!" These words I heard, felt and wrote onto the paper all at the same time.

Saying 'Good Morning' to my Soul Team and Angel energies as I wake up each morning has become a delightful habit. This simple exercise places me in an open space of being alert to guidance throughout my day. Now with this newly received statement from The Angels of The Light, many questions exploded into my mind.

The response to my questions was instant, "The name of your Soul voice is spelled ... ASCIMELATE ... and sounds assimilate. The word ASCIMELATE lifts from your inner voice ... your Soul voice. This is the name for you now to recognize as your Angels and Soul energy connection. This welcomes heightened awareness."

As my mind absorbed, I looked up the meaning of assimilate in the dictionary. The short meaning is - "to make alike or similar".

Now sit down, The Angels of The Light continue ... "The making of a fuller connection with your Angels is the illuminated awareness of the infinite love that surrounds protects, carries and assists with your mission intentions in every detail.

This Angel connection NAME is the vibration sound of your Soul's voice and Song as it expresses outwardly your inner Soul team growth. It is the Vibration Match of your Guardian Angels music with your Soul growth, it vibrates louder or softer with each step of insight you gain on this Soul growth adventure."

WOW I'm thinking, I have all this energy assistance within my Soul team plus the energies of Angels who spotlight guidance onto my best choices. Now my Soul gives me a musical song sound that compliments my Angels' NAME???!!!

WAIT there's more! My next question was HOW CAN I HEAR IT? The answer is again spontaneous ... "It is of a need to listen for this sound as a CURRENT that runs through you and into your Aura energies. The brilliance of your unique SOUL Team SOUND is the true reflection of your harmony of growth.

You can hear your Soul Sound in your VOICE as you speak and sing and how it interacts with others. It is also the sound of your thoughts vibrating when in a harmony of LOVE. It is AMAZINGLY beautiful ... your Angels of The Light."

AWESOME ... was the word that flew out of my mouth as this information sunk in. So those of us who know our Angels' communication name can listen for its Soul Team musical energy match. The inner vibration current that connects and opens this personal guidance.

WOW WOW! Then it really hit me. I had previously listed all my Angels names on paper in an attempt to come up with an anagram that included them all in one empowering name. I wanted to inclusively THANK every one of my Angels.

Yes as you have probably guessed, I used the first letter of each of my Angels' names from my list. ASCIMELATE was the word it spelled out! (Just LOVE how the Angels place emphasis on sound rather than spelling.)

I'm thinking this connection has huge rewards. Now we can instantly hear when our Soul team is out of harmonic vibration just by singing or saying our Angels' name. (e.g. When our Mind & Ego wants to eject our Soul from the driver's seat.)

The Angels say that the awareness we gain in our All One Source connection of our Angel Name is carried with us as we evolve and retain this Soul growth and... as we move further into ALL LOVE illumination together. The CONNECTIONS are ENDLESS and this Mirrors the infinite ALL Source details, like an ever engaging Bigger Picture.

Well I have turned up the volume of my little inner Soul voice by saying and singing loudly its vibration match to my Angels' NAME.

As we grasp this awareness of energies being OURSELVES, who we truly are, I believe this to be the first big step to glimpsing our Angelic mirror guiding life adventure.

ASCIMELATE has become an valuable navigator in my life!

I have recognized that my Soul energy & Angel energy have very similar qualities. Both are vibrations of the ALL Source. All so personally tailored!

DO YOU KNOW YOUR SOUL ANGEL VIBRATION NAME MATCH?

If so, SING it to the High Heavens!!!
